MISSION MINUTES

Recent statistics from the Pew Research and others on Christian's views on marriage and cohabitation indicate our society has de-buckled itself from the institution of marriage. And the church is now doing the same thing, conforming to the culture instead of transforming it. Our children and young adults are paying the prices. When the church no longer treats marriage any differently than the culture, it has lost it's way and it's voice on so much more. PRAY for the church in America.
