MISSION MINUTES

Prisons in Haiti are reporting rising inmate deaths as they run out of food and water. At least eight had died in a prison housing 833 inmates. It had run out of food two month previous. Some rely on family members to feed them but gang violence has made some areas impassable. Four nonprofits pooled resources to feed 11,000 inmates across Haiti for three months this year. Pray for inmates who not only need physical food and water but also the Water of Life.
