MISSION MINUTES

The Voice of the Martyrs Korea is sharing the Gospel with North Korean workers who are stuck abroad and currently unable to return home due to the North's closed border from COVID. When North Korean workers find new faith in Christ and then go home, they are able to reach their own people with the Gospel. In the year 2000, 0% of North Koreans inside of North Korea had seen a Bible. But as of December 2021, about 8% of North Koreans had seen a Bible. That's upwards of 2 million in a country where to see a Bible is a court execution. Pray for new North Korean believers to grow deep roots of faith before they potentially go home to reach others with the Gospel.
