MISSION MINUTES

Relatives of a man in eastern Uganda chopped off his hands after he converted from Islam to Christianity. He returned home briefly on the evening of April 17 to collect personal belongings before relocating to a safer place. "I found my brothers waiting for me," Faruku said. "My elder brother approached me and pretended to ask about my whereabouts. Suddenly, he grabbed me, and the others surrounded me." They took him into the house and cut off his hands while reciting Islamic scripture. The relatives later transported him just over 3 miles away and abandoned him near a crossroads, severely injured. Pray for the Christians being severely persecuted in Uganda.
